

Business Spotlight

W.S. Stevenson

A few weeks ago I had the pleasure of sitting down and visiting with Weldon Stevenson, owner/operator of W.S. Stevenson store located on the Shelbyville courthouse square.

Mr. Stevenson is a humble man deserving of recognition for a business that has been open since August 1947. He recalls that it was a hot Saturday and Shelbyville was celebrating Old Settlers. He wasn't sure at the time how well his business would do but wanted to give it a try. I believe it did quite well as I am writing this article almost 64 years later.

Mr. Stevenson and I have something in common in that we both had experience with military life. We found ourselves sharing stories from those experiences and I could tell he walks each step with pride for his country. He has made it a point to stock American Made products over the years and commented that this has become quite difficult, as we are all aware.

You can find fabric, jeans, coveralls, women's ready wear, floss and stamped goods and sewing products to name a few as you browse the aisles. One thing that you can be sure of is you will not go unnoticed and you will receive excellent customer service during your visit at W.S. Stevenson's.

It was truly my pleasure to share a few moments with Weldon and if you have the chance, you should stop by and see what is new and visit a while.

Hours of operation are: Monday-Friday 8-4 and Saturday 8-12.
